To whom it may concern,

This is to confirm that J Hardman of Barnhill Marketing successfully delivered consultancy to the company for a 12-day period under the Export Assist programme funded by the Welsh Assembly Government.

By facilitating a structured and pro-active approach to our business, Jeff enabled us to start on a period of sustainable growth not just with our existing client base but, more importantly, in terms also of new long-term prospects for the company's development overseas.
